

Tuition Fees and Scholarships

Tuition fees (per credit)

- CSE, EEE and Civil Engineering: 5,500 Taka per credit.
- BBA and Economics: 4,800 Taka per credit.
- English, Journalism and Public Health: 3,900 Taka per credit.
- Law: 4,500 Taka per credit.
- MBA: 6,000 Taka per credit.

A full bachelor's degree is usually 140 to 150 credits. The CSE program is 148 credits.

Other fees (one time)

- Admission fee: 25,000 Taka.
- Library and lab deposit: 5,000 Taka. This deposit is returned after graduation.
- Student ID card: 300 Taka. A replacement card costs 500 Taka.

Payment rules

Students can pay the trimester fee in 3 installments: 40% at registration, 30% before the midterm exam, and 30% before the final exam. A late fee of 1,000 Taka is added for each late installment. Students with unpaid fees cannot sit for the final exam.

Merit scholarships

- New students with a combined SSC and HSC GPA of 10.0 (golden GPA 5 in both) get a 50% tuition waiver in the first year.
- New students with a combined GPA of 9.0 to 9.99 get a 25% waiver in the first year.
- Current students with a trimester GPA of 3.90 or higher get a 50% waiver for the next trimester.
- Current students with a trimester GPA of 3.75 to 3.89 get a 25% waiver for the next trimester.

Other waivers

- Siblings studying at the same time each get a 10% waiver.
- Children of freedom fighters get a 30% waiver.
- Students with financial need can apply for a need-based grant of up to 40%. Apply at the Financial Aid Office (Building B, Room B-105) in the first 3 weeks of the trimester.

Only one waiver can be used at a time. If a student qualifies for two waivers, the larger one is given. A student loses a merit scholarship if the trimester GPA falls below 3.00.